July 25, 2018 will mark the 50th anniversary of the papal encyclical, Humanae vitae. On April 4-6, 2018, an historic symposium will take place in our nation's capital at The Catholic University of America.

Speakers include Most Rev. Charles Chaput, OFM Cap, Janet Smith, PhD, Mary Eberstadt, Helen Alvaré, JD, Glenn Olsen, PhD, and Teresa Collett, JD.

Co-sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth and The Catholic University of America's School of Theology and Religious Studies with other Catholic institutions of higher learning*, the symposium sees the foundation of all human relationships in Christ's work of redemption which has restored and made new God's original plan for the human person, human sexuality, and marriage, offering light and healing to all.

Gratitude is expressed to Our Sunday Visitor Institute, The Knights of Columbus, the co-sponsors, and generous donors for funding this historic event!

*Co-sponsors are: The Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops + The School of Theology and Religious Studies, The Catholic University of America + The Pontifical Institute of John Paul II for Studies on Marriage and The Family, at The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC + The Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception at the Dominican House of Studies (Washington, DC) + The Institute for Natural Family Planning, Marquette University, College of Nursing
