

BUILT UPON ROCK

FINDING YOUR FOOTING IN A PERIOD OF GREAT TURMOIL

Providentially, this year's tumultuous presidential election coincides with the 25th anniversary of the great papal encyclical, Evangelium Vitae, which contains the Church's fundamental teachings on the dignity of the human person and our unrelenting obligation to uphold that dignity in all aspects of life and society. Join us for an evening lecture on how these teachings provide us with the grounding we need to keep our footing and navigate confidently through these difficult and turbulent times.

Wednesday, October 21, 2020
7:00-8:30 PM

Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul
18th Street & Benjamin Franklin Parkway
Philadelphia, PA 19103

This lecture will explore these questions:

- How does our Catholic faith secure us against the many ideologies that compete for our allegiance?
- What are the non-negotiables that we can cling to in a world where everything seems to be negotiable?
- How do we approach the election authentically as Catholics when life issues and social justice issues seem to be pitted against one another?

PRESENTER

CHRISTINE FLOWERS

Christine Flowers is an immigration attorney and a columnist for the Delaware County Daily Times. She wrote for the Philadelphia Daily News and Philadelphia Inquirer from 2002 until this past year. She is a sister, an aunt and devoted to the memory of her parents, who instilled in her a profound love of her faith and identity as a Catholic woman.

Please register at: cathedralphila.org/lecture

Sponsored by the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter & Paul. No charge to attend. Free parking is available in the Cathedral parking lot. Social distancing will be observed. Questions? Contact info@cathedralphila.org