Your spiritual guides

Father Emanuel Zetino

Born in Montreal of a Guatemalan family, he did all his training in Montreal and was ordained a diocesan priest on May 17, 2019. His experience with the French, English, Latin American and Italian communities in the diocese make him a priest very close to the multicultural reality of the Church in Montreal. After three years as vicar at the Cathedral Basilica of Mary Queen of the World in Montreal, he has been parish priest of Sainte-Marguerite Bourgeoys parish on Nuns' Island since September 2022.

Archbishop Brian Joseph Dunn

Archbishop Dunn, born in St. John's, Newfoundland, on January 8, 1955, was ordained a priest on August 28, 1980. After serving in various parishes, he pursued studies in Canon Law, completing his Doctoral studies in 1991. He became Bishop of Antigonish on January 25, 2010. Pope Francis appointed him Coadjutor Archbishop of Halifax-Yarmouth on April 13, 2019, and he assumed the role of Archbishop on November 27, 2020, succeeding Archbishop Mancini.
